

Can do

■ Tuesday, August 5: The Northland Chamber of Commerce and the Tiaho Trust will host a free two-hour employers' evening at Reyburn House gallery on the Whangarei waterfront, starting at 5.30pm.

The trust is a disabled-led organisation which works to encourage the Northland community to be more inclusive of disabled people, and to value their ability to contribute. The speakers are Trust representatives and employers who will speak about their experiences employing disabled people. Information/registration, (09) 430 3406.
